FARMERS STATE BANK APPOINTS NEW COMMUNITY BANK PRESIDENT

May 7, 2021 (Harrisburg, Ill.) – Farmers State Bank announced its Board of Directors has appointed Quinn Laird as Community Bank President effective immediately. Laird previously held the position of Chief of Police at Herrin Police Department.

“Quinn Laird is an outstanding addition to our team and brings with him a highly respected reputation in our community,” said Charles Holland, CEO of Farmers state Bank. “We are excited for him to join Farmers State Bank.”

Laird brings a strong and diverse set of skills to his new role. He worked in the banking industry as a Loan Officer prior to starting his career in law enforcement. Laird was Sergeant for the Herrin Police Department from July 1997 to June 2015 when he became Chief of Police for the remainder of his career. He retired from law enforcement in August of 2020. Laird is a proud Southern Illinois University graduate and has a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance.

“I’m excited and thankful for this incredible opportunity to work for Farmers State Bank,” said Laird. “I’m really looking forward to being a part of this outstanding organization.”

Laird currently resides in Herrin, IL with his wife, Sendi Laird. They have two children, Sophie Laird, an RN at Carbondale Memorial Hospital and Nicholas Laird, a student and baseball player at John A. Logan Community College. Laird loves nothing more than spending time with his family, going on vacation and playing with their two dogs.

“I’m enthusiastic that Quinn Laird is the new Farmers State Bank Community Bank President of Marion,” said Jason McKinnies, Director of the Board at Farmers State Bank. “Quinn brings an exceptional track record of leadership to this position. With the addition of Quinn and the already exceptional leadership of Farmers State Bank, the bank is positioned for a tremendous future.”

Farmers State Bank of Alto Pass is a locally owned and operated community bank. With branches in Harrisburg, Alto Pass, and Marion, Farmers State Bank spans across the southern Illinois region. As a full-service bank, Farmers has a variety of products and services to best suit customer needs. Farmers has grown from a bank with $3,000,000 in assets in 1994 to over $347,294,804 in total assets today.
